PATRICK SMITH JOINS EUA AS SENIOR PROJECT MANAGER

MADISON — Eppstein Uhen Architects (EUA) is pleased to announce that Patrick Smith, RA has joined our health and wellness team as a senior project manager.

Patrick brings more than 17 years of industry experience to EUA. As a licensed architect, he will manage the planning process, maintain budgets and schedules, and monitor the design progress for various healthcare projects. Patrick has been involved in several notable projects throughout his career including Froedtert and the Medical College of Wisconsin, Columbia St. Mary's Hospital and Children's Hospital of Wisconsin.

"Patrick is a great asset to our firm," said EUA President Greg Uhen. "With a background in healthcare architecture, Patrick understands the nuances of medical design. His knowledge and experience will help to expand our growing healthcare portfolio," added Uhen.

Patrick holds a Bachelor of Science degree in architecture from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.
